A candidate whose name appears on the ballot cannot be an attesting witness for an absentee ballot.

Military and Overseas Voters

Military and overseas voters frequently use the Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) to request absentee ballots. FPCA may be received by electronic facsimile (fax) and electronic mail (e-mail). Likewise, absentee ballots and balloting materials may be sent, and voted absentee ballots and completed Federal Write-In-Absentee Ballots may be received by fax and e-mail. If the voter does not indicate a preference, delivery of the absentee ballot and balloting materials shall be made by mail. No other faxing of absentee ballot applications or absentee ballots are permissible. Military personnel and overseas voters who request an absentee ballot but do not receive the absentee ballot in time for it to be returned in time to be counted may use the Federal Write-in Absentee Ballot (FWAB), which may be used for general, special, primary and run-off elections for local, state, and federal offices. For military and overseas voters, one application for an absentee ballot shall serve as a request for an absentee ballot for the next federal general election, including all primary elections associated with the election; and all state and county primary and general elections that occur after receipt of the application through the date of the next federal general election.

When a primary, general, or special election may be followed by a run-off, the Municipal Clerk shall send to the requesting military or overseas absentee voter both ballots and both return envelopes for both elections at the same time. The ballot for the second election shall be identical to the ballot for the first election except that it shall be printed on a different tint of paper and shall be styled or labeled to show which ballot is for the first primary and which ballot is for the second primary. If the voter casts a vote for a candidate on the second election ballot that is no longer a candidate in the second election, then the vote for that particular office in the second election is disregarded.
